It's very Euro- and Asia- centric learning. Perhaps instead of "saviorism" learning, I suggest we can just experience the cultures, social policies, and grassroots organizations. To truly understand where others are coming from, its best to get a firsthand account and experience of a variety rather than what we're familiar and comfortable with.

Global awareness messages may also be lacking..?

I believe people should elaborate more on their projects

It is always a joy to see the amazing products of learning of the IGDVS community. Hoping it could reach a wider audience in the future. I will take my students to the ESLR museum again next week so that we can take some time to enjoy the work displayed. Thank you to the ESLR team for displaying all the student work and coordinating the event.

The performances were a beautiful addition to the ESLR museum. The dance sequences and music accompaniment were very creative artistic expressions. It would have been helpful to give a synopsis of the dance expressions behind the Vimalakirti's Sutra.

Lastly, to enhance the experience of the exhibits in the future. Grade level tour guides can lead each exhibit by explaining the purpose of their learning, how it ties to our learning outcomes, and what they have learned. Students can work on public speaking skills and take more ownership in presenting the work that they did. Thank you IGDVS!

It's great!

It is a wonderful event and difficult to choose which area needs the most improvement. I'm particularly impressed by the diversity of audience from the IGDVS community. The Vimalakirti Sutra musical was really impressive. Kudos to all the teachers and students in educating the youth!

Good job.

学校要回复地藏经学习的课程，就像培德中学的成立介绍里说的那样，学生毕业前一定要学习完地藏经，对孩子的处罚，也可以用抄写地藏经，或背诵地藏经一段或一品，这既可以给孩子增加福报也消除孩子的业障，同时也学习了地藏经，在地藏菩萨的加持下，我想一个个都会变得更孝顺，更懂事，请别介意这是我肤浅的想法
